A Tax-wise Way to Give

Did you know you can create a legacy at Lancaster Bible College without changing your will or parting with any assets now? You can designate LBC as a beneficiary of your retirement accounts and benefit from one of most tax-wise ways to support the organization you care about.

Making a gift of retirement plan assets, IRA’s, 401(k), 403(b), and other qualified plans, is easy to do. You do not need to modify your will or living trust. You can name LBC as the sole beneficiary or as one of several. This allows you to make a gift while still providing for family members or other loved ones. At your passing, that portion of left-over funds will be paid to the LBC in a lump sum, totally tax-free. In the meantime, the funds remain available to you should you need them to meet your own needs, and, if family circumstances change, you can adjust the portion allocated to LBC.
Besides tax savings, a gift of retirement assets has other advantages:

- It is easy to arrange. You simply request a beneficiary designation form from your plan administrator. There is no need to change your will or living trust.
- You can designate Lancaster Bible College as beneficiary of whatever portion you choose. For example, it might be 10 percent or 35 percent of the account. If you have otherwise provided for heirs, you could leave the entire balance to LBC.
- The gift is revocable. You retain full control of your retirement funds should you need them, and you can change beneficiaries at any time.

Taxation of retirement plan assets

Retirement assets are considered 'non-probate assets' and generally pass outside of the will or living trust. However, they are still considered to be a part of an individual’s estate and the fair market value of these assets, along with all other estate assets, will be subject to possible state and federal estate taxes.

Every dollar your heirs receive (other than your spouse) from retirement accounts would be subject to income tax (unless the distribution derives from a Roth IRA). Depending on the size of the estate, retirement funds, like other estate assets, may be subject to estate tax. However, distributions from retirement accounts to a charity are subject to neither income tax nor estate tax.

General rule: Upon death, it is better to make charitable gifts with IRAs and qualified retirement funds and give other assets such as cash, securities, and real estate to heirs.
Outright Gifts of Retirement Assets

If you are over 59 ½ years of age, you might also consider an outright gift from your IRA or 401(k) or 403(b) plan. While the withdrawal will typically be a taxable event, your charitable deduction would offset the taxable income, provided you itemize your deductions and can claim the full deduction in the year you make the gift.

“I believe in the college and how they are expanding on the original dream by sending quality-equipped students into the world. The work of God at Lancaster Bible College is so obvious!”
— Tom P, 1980 Alumnus
